REPAIRING A SPECIALTY.

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO
ENGINES.

When we are reminded of the old fable about the fellow who ran a race with Thought, and the old story of "Gilpin's Horse," we conclude modern rapid transit isn't in it. All hope is not lost, however, for the papers tell us the Atlantic has been crossed in a record-breaking time, and turf news indicates unheard of speed. Then, again, we hear frequently of a railroad that has smashed everything, just to "get there." Some people are said to be very rapid, and by the way you button up your coats the summer seems to be fast slipping away. We don't figure on being behind any of them, and the sooner you get your repairs the quicker you are prepared for work. See?

Local Department.

Big mass meeting at Paw Paw Oct. 3. Mrs. J. I. Breck of Jackson is visiting in town.

The grape harvest for this section is substantially over.

Mrs. Frank Cole has been quite ill for several days past.

George L. Bruner has moved into his new house on Paw Paw street.

The B flat club will meet this (Friday) evening with Mrs. Stan. Briggs.

Mrs. Will Miller went to Chicago Wednesday for a visit with friends.

Mr. Jas. White of West Bay City visited relatives in this place last week.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Will Snow, Thursday, October 4, at 2:30 p. m.

Miss Nellie Lewis returned a few days ago from a visit with friends in Chicago.

There was a slight frost Monday night on low grounds, but no damage resulted.

Maurice Dillon of Waverly has been adjudged insane and sent to the asylum at Kalamazoo.

Mr. Leonard Crandall and Mrs. C. P. Rawson will leave to-morrow for a visit with relatives in Mendon.

Eli Bierce and family, who have been living in Missouri for four years past, have returned to Paw Paw.

Gov. Rich and U. S. Senator Patton will speak at Paw Paw on Wednesday next, afternoon and evening.

Samuel Martindale has been appointed postmaster at McDonald, this county, vice E. S. Shepard, removed.

The survivors of the Twentieth Mich. Infantry will hold their 29th annual reunion at Eaton Rapids on Wednesday, Oct. 10th.

A person is foolish to suffer with headache when five cents will buy a remedy. See new adv. of Wolverine Pharmacy.

Frank Thomas and family have returned to Paw Paw to live, occupying a part of Mrs. Cross' residence on Kalamazoo street.

E. B. Longwell has removed his family from his farm to the village, occupying J. M. Longwell's house on south Kalamazoo street.

Our ball team (the Wolverines) went over to Gobleville last Friday and got their jackets dusted--9 to 3 in favor of the Goblevillians.

The social of the W. C. T. U. will be at Baptist church parlors Tuesday evening, Oct. 2. Supper served at 6 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Housewives, in putting up their winter supplies, should remember that any "missing link" can always be found at J. C. Warner's. He's got 'em.

The Farmers' Union Club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor on Wednesday, October 3. All members are cordially invited.

M. U. Richardson spent last Sunday with friends in Jackson. Mrs. R., who has been visiting in that city and Battle Creek, will return home to-day.

Jas. A. Leech yesterday put the finishing touches on Broughton's new store, and a very neat job it is. The store is now ready for occupancy.

Rev. Stinchcomb, the new Methodist minister for this place, will preach his first sermon Sunday morning, having been unable to get here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stevens have recently entertained Mrs. Prof. Abbott of Galesburg, who is a sister of Mr. S., and Miss Minnie Stevens of Oostem.

Quite a number of Odd Fellows and members of the Rebekah branch of that organization in this place visited the Rebekah lodge at Gobleville Wednesday night.

Mr. Fred R. Bassett has purchased of M. P. Allen the lot and shop on Main street adjoining Johnson's wagon factory, and will manufacture his patent churn there.

Mr. W. R. Sellick returned a day or two since from Chicago, where he purchased an extensive stock of fur capes, cloaks, jackets, dress goods, carpets, rugs, curtains, etc. These goods will be right along, and anticipating purchasers should examine them while the several lines are full.

Mrs. A. C. Glidden and the children are expected to return to-morrow from their visit at Cedar Springs. Mr. G. goes to Grand Rapids to meet them.

Richard Harding Davis describes "The Streets of Paris" in the October Harper's. The paper is illustrated with some effective studies in black and white by C. D. Gibson.

In noting the marriage of Miss Elsie Labadie, in last week's paper, we were made to say the groom was "Charles Downer of Chicago." It should have read "Chelsea, Mich."

We are glad to see the genial face of Mr. W. J. Sellick again. He returned last Sunday from his European jaunt, feeling splendidly and reports a delightful trip and visit.

Seward & Marshall entertain the idea that John Gilpin's horse was something of a sprinter, and argue from that fact that now is a good time to have one's machinery put in repair.

The Coterie will meet at the home of Mrs. A. H. Smith Wednesday, Oct. 3. The library will be open on that day from 1 to 2 o'clock, on account of the meeting being out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. George Scott of South Haven were made doubly happy on the 13th inst. by the coming to their home of a pair of twin babies--a boy and a girl, weighing 6 1/2 lbs. each.

Ocobock Bros. keep a team on the road all the time, and the loads of calves, lambs, poultry, etc., brought in daily would indicate that the patrons of their "model" market are excellent feeders.

A new telephone line is to be constructed between Marcellus and Cassopolis, via Wakelee, Penn and Vandalia. It is the intention of the projectors to eventually extend the line to Three Rivers.

Mrs. S. J. Breed of Neilsville, Wis., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dopp and other friends in this place. Mrs. Breed is a sister of F. M. Manning of Albion, and will visit him before she returns to her home.

H. W. Showerman claims to be the only place on earth where clothing will be sold for less than cost. His discount on clothing has already reached 23 per cent, to-morrow (Saturday) 24 per cent, and so on until all sold. See adv.

Holmes & Bilsborrow this week call attention to their great line of heating stoves--the most extensive stock ever under one roof in Paw Paw. As they say in their adv., prices cut no figure at all. The stoves are going to be sold.

When you talk about cloaks, and the amount of money you can afford to invest in one, just take a look at Broughton's adv. in to-day's paper, and if the prices there quoted are not low enough to suit, you are certainly very hard to please.

The Bradford (Pa.) Republican of the 21st inst. has an account of the wedding at East Smithfield on the 19th of Mr. W. W. Hodge of South Haven and Miss J. Addie Wood of that place, speaking in high terms of the bride, who seems to have been a prime society favorite in her native town.

The fashion features in Harper's Bazar for September 23d are a beautiful demi-season outdoor gown from Worth, drawn by Sandoz; also several elegant reception toilettes, including a charming model in black silk. There is in the same number a delightful home story, entitled "Two Ways," written by Frances Bacon Paine.

The winter season at the Beckwith Memorial theatre, Dowagiac, opens to-morrow (Saturday) evening with the great Southern play, "In Old Kentucky." There are thirty-five people in this company, including the famous Pickaninny band. Tickets for this great play can be secured at Lee Bro's & Co's bank, Dowagiac, by mail or telephone.

Prof. B. Mincer, the noted optician who has been in this neighborhood for a month or so past, could have done an excellent business here for at least another month, but was called back to his home in Rochester, N. Y., by the demands of urgent business. He will, however, visit Paw Paw again within a few weeks, and will be glad to meet all his old friends and patients and as many new ones as may need his professional services.

The Democratic convention at South Haven yesterday nominated the following ticket: For representative, Erastus Osborn, Hamilton; sheriff, Charles A. Barber, Hamilton; clerk, M. S. Carney, Decatur; register, W. H. Stainton, Lawton; treas., Wm. H. Longwell, Paw Paw; pros. atty., A. Lynn Free, Gobleville; circuit court com'rs, H. L. McNeil and W. H. Mason, Paw Paw; surveyor, Edwin Hogmire, Arlington; coroners, Dr. Wm. E. Scott of Bloomingdale and Dr. James E. Maxwell of Decatur.

Hon. Victor M. Gore, whom the Republicans of this district will remember as having done such magnificent work during the campaign of two years ago, will open the canvass in this county at Bangor on Saturday evening next--Oct. 6th, and on Wednesday evening, Oct. 10th, he will speak at Lawton. Mr. Gore thoroughly understands the questions at issue before the people, and as he is one of the most eloquent and forcible orators in the Northwest, the people of our neighboring villages may confidently anticipate a rich feast.

David L. Dillon left yesterday for Ann Arbor, where he will enter the law school of the University of Michigan. Mr. D. graduated from the Paw Paw high school with the class of '90, taught a few terms of school, and finally decided to adopt the law as a profession. He entered the office of Heckert & Chandler something over a year ago and these gentlemen inform us that he has made rapid progress in his preliminary reading and exhibits a marked adaptability for the profession of his choice, being a fluent, ready speaker, a keen observer, and possessed of a retentive memory. Personally Mr. Dillon is a refined and courteous gentleman and will be much missed in society and church circles.

Rev. Chas. Cook, a retired minister, who with his wife lived on the old Solomon place, about a mile north of Alma Center, dropped dead in his field Wednesday while at work dragging in rye. Deceased was about 70 years old, and had been in his usual good health up to the time of his death. We understand the remains were taken to Ohio for burial.

The Prohibition mass convention at Hartford a few days ago put the following county ticket in nomination: For representative, J. P. Warner of Decatur; sheriff, I. S. Bunnell of Covert; clerk, E. W. Clement of Gobleville; register, T. C. Greaser of South Haven; treasurer, George Weldon of Lawton; coroners, J. G. Ramsdell of So. Haven and T. A. Granger of Paw Paw. There being no lawyers of that political faith in the county, the offices of public prosecutor and circuit court commissioners were left for one or the other of the old parties to fill.

The Populists held three conventions at Hartford Wednesday: Congressional, legislative, and county. The following nominations were made: For representative in congress, 4th district, Sullivan Cook of Hartford; for representative in the state legislature, Wm. H. Hurlbut of South Haven; for sheriff, E. Redding of Bloomingdale; clerk, C. R. Rowley of Hamilton; register, Stephen Doyle of Hartford; treasurer, J. K. Shanahan of Porter; pros. attorney and circuit court commissioners, vacant; coroners, W. J. Teemans of Gobleville and Chas. Wagner of Hamilton.

The reports of the Commandant, Board of Managers and other officers of the Michigan Soldiers' Home for the biennial period ending June 30 last, have been submitted to Governor Rich. Commandant Graves states that at the close of the last biennial report there were 370 inmates at the home. From July 1, '92, to June 30, '94, there were admitted 429 and readmitted 630, making a total of 1,429. During that period 996 were honorably discharged, 36 summarily discharged, 3 dishonorably discharged, 38 dropped from the rolls, 71 died. This is a total of 1,086, leaving 343 in the home at the close of the period under report. The appropriations for the years 1893-'4 were $82,500, and a similar sum is asked for the next two years. The report of Treasurer Crozier shows the total receipts of the Home for the biennial period to have been $180,547.12 and the disbursements $155,592.61. The disbursements of the family annex from its completion to June 30th were $3,500.

The citizens of Paw Paw and vicinity are to be specially favored and honored on the afternoon and evening of next Wednesday (Oct. 3) by the presence of Governor Rich and United States Senator John Patton, both of whom will speak on the great issues of the day. If the weather is suitable, the afternoon meeting will be in the court house yard, otherwise in the opera house, where the evening meeting will be held. The Republicans of Van Buren will demonstrate to their distinguished visitors on this occasion that they are fully alive to the vital importance of the success of their party in November. A fair majority in Michigan will not suffice; it must be of a magnitude that will place the Peninsular State side by side with Maine and Vermont as regards loyalty to American institutions. We would that every voter in the county, irrespective of previous party affiliation, could hear these great leaders on Wednesday next. Let's give them a rousing reception.

Our Allegan neighbors are wrought up to an intense stage of excitement over the cold blooded murder of Ira Hurd last Saturday night in his own home about a mile from the central portion of the village. He had told his wife late in the afternoon that he was going to Hopkins on business and would not return until Monday. But it seems that he did not go, as he was seen down town in the evening, and at about 10:30 Mrs. Hurd ran to a neighbor's and said that she had shot her husband. An investigation showed that her statement was true, or at least apparently so. It appears that Mr. Hurd had for the past two years doubted his wife's fidelity to him, and had decided to verify or disprove his suspicions on this occasion. He had evidently approached his house in the darkness and hid behind a shock of corn that stood in a field near the house. From the shock of corn to the house it could be plainly seen that he had walked back and forth a number of times. He left his overcoat and umbrella behind the shock of corn and had taken off his shoes, removed the screen from the parlor window and entered and went direct to his wife's bedroom, where he was shot. Mrs. Hurd claims she was just saying her prayers when she heard a man's footsteps and, supposing that he was a burglar, fired, and immediately arose from her knees, lighted a lamp and was horrified to find that it was her husband. Hurd rallied a little under stimulants Sunday morning, was perfectly conscious, but refused to make any statement regarding the shooting. At 10 a. m. Sunday he died. Mrs. Hurd's pistol showed no evidence of having been discharged, and the general belief is that a third party was in the room and did the shooting. Hurd was a respected citizen and his wife up to two years ago had been a prominent worker in the Baptist church. Some startling developments are looked for.

Circuit Court.

Our report last week closed with Ed. Bailey of Gobleville on trial for violation of the local option law. The jury very promptly acquitted him.

W. H. Roberts, charged with adultery, acquitted.

George Hennessey, charged with assault with intent to murder, was found guilty of simple assault and battery.

Mills G. Hawley of Toquig, charged with arson, acquitted.

As we go to press Will Broadwell of Bangor is on trial charged with assault with intent to murder.

This latter case clears the calendar of criminal cases, but there is a good deal of civil business to be disposed of.
